

VITA

Prof. Dr. Sari Nusseibeh

Born in Damascus, 12 February 1949.

Current Position: President, Al-Quds University (1995-Present)

- Professor of Philosophy, Al-Quds University (1995-Present).
- Co-Chairman, Israeli-Palestinian Science Organization (IPSO)
- Fellow, Baker Institute for Public Policy, Rice University - 2006
- Fellow, The Radcliffe Institute for Advanced Study, Harvard University (2004 - 2005).

Academic Studies

- Ph.D. (Harvard), Islamic Philosophy (1978).
- B.A. (M. A. Oxon), Politics, Philosophy, Economics (1971).

Publications

- Once Upon a Country: A Palestinian Life Autobiographical Reflections. (with Anthony David) . New York: Farrar, Straus and Giroux, 2007.
- No Trumpets No Drums: A Two-State Settlement of the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict. (with Mark Heller). New York: Hill and Wang, 1991. Paperback 3rd.edition 1993.
- Palestine: A State is Born (Selections of Newspapers/Magazines articles between 1987-1990) Palestine Information Office :The Hague, 1990.
- Al-Hurriyyah Bayn Alhadd Wa'l Mutlaq (Absolute and Restricted Freedom). London: Al-Saqi, 1995.

Forthcoming: What's A Palestinian State Worth? (Pending - HUP).

Sari Nusseibeh has been president of Al Quds University since 1995 and also teaches philosophy there. The former PLO representative (2001 – 2002) has always been actively involved in the Middle East Process in various forms and obtained several prizes and awards for his activities: the Lev Kopelev Prize (2003), the Freedom of Worship Award (2004) and last year together with Itamar Rabinovich the Peace Prize from the Korn an Gerstenmann Foundation.